SENATOR TILLMAN DENOUNCES KNOX

South Carolina's Senator Charges Attorney-General with Being Criminal and Drexel.

CAUSED FAMINE

He Declares That the Death of All Persons Frozen Should Lie at His Door.

(Special By Scripps-McRae)

Washington, Jan. 16.—Senator Tillman of South Carolina, during an arraignment of trusts and monopolies in the Senate, charged Attorney General Knox with being "criminal and drexel" and "the murderer of all those persons who have frozen to death" since the coal famine began. Referring further to the Attorney General, he charged that he "was the man who deserves the hate and opprobrium of the poor and oppressed of the land."

Senator Tillman's speech created a sensation in the Senate and Senators Spooner and Beveridge continually entered objections to his remarks. Senator Spooner announced after the South Carolina Senator had concluded that several Senators would reply to Mr. Tillman on Monday.

Plays the Railroads.

When the Vest resolution, directing the finance committee of the Senate to report a bill removing the duty on coal, was called up, Senator Tillman arose and continued his tirade against the coal monopoly. He declared the railroads are absolutely in the saddle on the coal question. They mine and market coal and fix the price, he charged, without regard to a solitary independent operator.

He said it was an infamy the way the press of the country was prostituted and lending itself to befuddle the minds of the people and deceive them into the idea that the railroads are willing and anxious to relieve the distress occasioned by the coal famine, but that somebody somewhere, called an independent operator, is responsible for the present condition of affairs.

No Credit to President.

The President deserves no credit, said he, except for his attempt to effect a settlement of the question, "but the actual fact is," he added, "that J. Pierpont Morgan gave orders to his co-conspirators or servants to attempt the arrangement between the monopoly and strikers."

In the course of his remarks, Mr. Tillman stated, after being closely questioned by Mr. Spooner, that it had been charged that the United States District Attorney of New York had received orders from the Attorney General not to submit his report of his investigation regarding trusts. To his mind, he said, a case had been made and the evidence and facts have been unanswered. The law, he said, was too plain for any one to dispute it.

Denounces Morgan.

Mr. Beveridge took exception to a statement by Mr. Tillman "which he thought impugned the motive of Judge Woods in issuing his injunction in the Debs case." Replying, Mr. Tillman said Judge Woods went far beyond anything ever contemplated by any American judge.

"Why, I inquire," said J. Pierpont Morgan, "are J. Pierpont Morgan or his co-conspirators any more immune from the proceedings of our courts of justice than Eugene Debs?"

Mr. Morgan, he said, had such a sanctity thrown around him on account of his vast wealth that to imprison him would cause the stars to go out of their course or the sun to stand still.

The Bridal Bouquet.

The bride's bouquet at a recent wedding was in seven sections, and was thrown, as she left, to the six bridesmaids and the maid of honor. Three of the sections held typical gifts—a gold dollar, a gold ring and a gold thimble—prophesying respectively wealth, matrimony and spinsterhood to the recipient.

Rats Entombed Alive.

Swarms of plague-infected rats which infest the stone wall along the seashore at Yokohama, have been entombed alive, the authorities having had every hole and crevice in the wall filled with cement and pebbles.

The Largest Holly Trees.

The largest holly-trees in the world grow in the Northern United States and in Canada, where the tree attains a height of 70 feet, and a girth of six to eight feet.

Appropriate.

A New York church will group all its various activities in one big skyscraper. There seems to be something appropriate in churches resorting to skyscrapers.—Philadelphia Ledger.

ACCUSES POLICE OF TAKING BRIBES

German Socialist Organ Exposes an Alleged Plot to Obtain Its Secrets.

Berlin, Jan. 16.—The local sensation of the day is the exposure in Vorwärts, the socialist organ, which has been able to obtain possession of important government circulars and information of what purports to be an attempt on the part of the political police to bribe one of its employes to reveal the secrets of the office. The employee referred to, a man named Stofen, was offered $16 monthly for his services. He accepted the first bribe and turned the money over to his paper which has warned the police agents that all the information possible on this and other subjects will be published.

CONFESSED MURDER AND GETS FREEDOM

Canadian Court Discharges Walter Herbert Who Admits His Complicity in Crime.

London, Ont., Jan. 16.—Walter Herbert, who by his own confession is a murderer, was today formally acquitted and discharged. Herbert confessed he and Gerald Sifton killed Joseph Sifton, Gerald's father, in 1900. Gerald was tried twice and acquitted at the second trial. After his acquittal there was nothing for the crown to do but discharge Herbert, who was in jail awaiting sentence.

SHOT IS FIRED BY A GERMAN CRUISER

Gunboat Vineta Sends Shell at the Shore Fortifications at Puerto Cabello.

Puerto Cabello, Jan. 16.—The German cruiser Vineta at sunset last night fired a shell at La Vigia, the fort crowning the hills behind this port. The shell, which was fired because men were believed to be in the fort, exploded, without causing damage.

CUBAN SOLDIERS TALK REVOLUTION

War Threatens the Republic from Mob Unless It Gives Soldiers Their Pay.

ARE IN EARNEST

Men Are Backed by Many Old Officers, and Mean Just What They Say.

(Special By Scripps-McRae.)

Havana, Jan. 16.—Former members of the Cuban army are beginning to threaten the Cuban government that if they are not paid by next March they will act. A printed manifesto most incendiary in tone has been addressed to the country and to the powers. Among other things it says:

The Manifesto

"The obligation of the government to pay the army is a sacred one. The liberating troops have awaited patiently, but everything has a limit. The liberating army will not wait later than March for the completion of the work of the payment of the soldiers. We will not be further put off by the pretext that a revision of the army list necessitates the delay, nor will we accept any other delay.

Its Ultimatum

"The liberating army is disposed to call the attention of Europe politically but energetically that we do not care for interior disturbance if no longer time is asked to pay us than but if, on the contrary, the army will reunite and occupy every town from Point Maisie to Cape San Antonio, particularly, we repeat."

CHICAGOAN ASKS BALM FOR A WOUNDED HEART

Alleges That Elgin Woman Elopement With Another Man on Day Fixed for Their Wedding.

Elgin, Ill., Jan. 16.—George Gronberg, employed in a big department store in Chicago and a resident of this city, has instituted a $5,000 breach-of-promise suit against his former sweetheart, Mrs. Della Wahl Swan, wife of Theo. Swan, Jr., whose father is reputed to be the wealthiest merchant in Elgin. Mr. Gronberg's attorney filed the papers at Geneva.

Four months ago Mrs. Swan was a hosiery saleswoman in the T. F. Swan department store, and Gronberg alleges that she was his betrothed. On the day of the proposed marriage Gronberg alleges the young woman left the scene of the wedding preparation and was married to Swan at Spring, Ill., twenty-four hours afterward.

T. F. Swan, Sr., gave them a home some home for a wedding present.

TELL STORIES OF FILIPINO CRUELTY

Witnesses in Glenn Court Martial at Manila Describe Barbarities of Samar Natives.

Manila, Jan. 16.—In the court martial of Maj. Edward F. Glenn, on charges of killing six prisoners of war during the Samar campaign, the defense spent the entire day describing the treacheries and cruelties of the natives of Samar, which it held justified a merciless policy.

Five officers testified to horrible barbarities and tortures of which they had personal knowledge. The massacre at Balangiga was described and additional light was thrown upon it. The order of General Lukban to poison and to set traps and pitfalls was read. Capt. Swan swore he informed General Jacob H. Smith that several thousand of the residents of his district had been driven into the mountains had become friendly to the Americans, and that they must be allowed to return to their homes or starve. General Smith according to the witness, replied:

"Let them die. The sooner they die the sooner we will have peace." Lieut. Streblow, who captured Gen. Lukban, testified that he generally kept his guides tied. He considered that General Smith's policy resulted in the pacification of his district in two months.

Lieu. Brandle described numerous tortures inflicted by the insurgents. He said that a party of rebels captured two native guides and thrust burning sticks into their bodies until they died.

STEAMER ST. LOUIS IS STILL MISSING

Even the American Line Company Is Now Apprehensive for Its Safety.

DEFECTIVE WORKS

The Owners of the Vessel Now Admit That the Machinery Was Old and Out of Repair.

(Special By Scripps-McRae.)

London, January 16.—Officials of the American today insist that there is nothing more serious the matter with the missing steamer St. Louis than a break down in the machinery, which was known to be out of repair and the boilers leaky.

New York Anxious

New York, January 16.—While there is as yet no news from the missing steamer, St. Louis, the agents here are confident that she will turn up all right. Notwithstanding their assurance to the public it is known that they are very anxious themselves.

Is Overdue

The steamer is five days overdue and no trace of it has been seen by vessels that have arrived in the past few days. The American line officials acknowledge that the machinery is at fault and that the boat would have been placed in dock hero for a thorough going over on its arrival.

Large Cabin List

There is a large cabin list of prominent people on board the boat and much anxiety is felt by their friends who continually besiege the company's office.

CARDINAL PAROCCHI DIES OF HEART DISEASE

Roman Catholic Prelate Was Regarded as the Most Likely Successor to Pope Leo XIII.

Rome, Jan. 16.—Cardinal Lucido Mary Parocchi, subdean of the Sacred College and vice-chancellor of the Catholic church, died of heart disease. He was born in 1833, was of Italian nationality, and was created a cardinal in 1877.

The death of Cardinal Parocchi removes one of the prelates considered to be the most likely to succeed Pope Leo.

There was always considerable friction between the Pope and Cardinal Parocchi on this account, and it led to the unprecedented step of the Pontiff in removing the cardinal from the post of vicar of Rome because it was thought that he too openly posed as the future Pope.

Nevertheless, the Pope was deeply affected by Cardinal Parocchi's death. He knelt in prayer and exclaimed: "These frequent deaths have made me feel quite an old man."

Fortnightly Fair for Paris.

On the initiative of the toy-makers' organization a fortnightly fair on the model of those held at Leipzig and Nijni Novgorod will be held in the spring at Paris. All industries will be admitted. No retail trade will be done.

Trees in England.

Christmas trees were unknown in England until the reign of Queen Victoria. The first one was ornamented by Prince Albert for the amusement of the Princess Royal and the Prince of Wales, who were children of 3 and 4 years old at that time.

Dignity of German Courts.

At Alzen, in Hesse, the other day, a prominent tradesman was sentenced to twenty-four hours' imprisonment for the "grave irreverence" of reading a newspaper in court while a case was under trial.

Etiquette Causes Trouble.

It is said that the pope is unwilling to receive President Loubet of France if the president should previously visit King Victor Emmanuel, and the president has decided to avoid Rome and will meet the king elsewhere.

Record of German Scholar.

Otto Goldmeister, three times mayor of Bremen, made that city a seaport and had time besides to devote to study. He translated some of Shakespeare's dramas, all of Byron's works and Dante's "Divine Comedy," this last especially being an excellent specimen of workmanship.

Nelson's Old Flagship.

Nelson's old ship, the Victory, is still to be accessible to the British public, although she is shortly to be superseded as the admiral's flagship at Portsmouth.

Madame Patti's Tallman.

Madame Patti it is said, preserves as a talisman the boots she wore at her debut over forty years ago.

MESSAGES WILL BE NEWS BULLETINS

Wireless Telegraph System Will Send Its Dispatches Only Forty Miles Seaward.

London, Jan. 16.—The announcement that arrangements had been made to publish daily papers on Atlantic steamers supplied with the wireless telegraph system, seems to have been founded on a plan, which goes into effect within a fortnight, to send news bulletins to certain steamers approaching the coast. These messages will be sent from a wireless station now nearly completed at Brow Head. The Marconi company will undertake only to send messages a distance of forty miles seaward, and for the present at least no daily papers will be published on board ships. News bulletins will simply be displayed in various parts of the steamers.

BIG FUND WAS EASILY RAISED

TEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-TWO DOLLARS NUCLEUS.

CASH FOR MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

Enthusiastic Meeting Held in the City Hall—By-Laws Adopted—Many New Members.

Thursday was a great evening for the Municipal League. The members gathered with the expectation of raising a few more city officials over the coals. After consideration they decided to leave all such matters in the hands of their executive committee. Having empowered that body to go ahead they looked about for a means of defraying the cost which the work will entail.

According to the provisions of the by-laws which were adopted last evening no dues or assessments shall be levied upon the members, who now have passed considerably beyond the two hundred mark. In numbers, consequently voluntary subscription was fixed upon as the best means of raising the money, and it proved successful. When the body adjourned over one thousand dollars had been pledged to the work, in amounts varying from one to twenty-five dollars.

Splendid Results

President G. S. Parker, M. G. Jeffris and others reiterated the statement that it was grand showing and one that the league had reason to be proud of. The results of the meeting were of a kind that count up more than words.

Before the meeting, which was held in the assembly hall of the municipal building was called to order, an opportunity was given for any to sign the constitution who might desire to do so. The constitution was given a reading for the benefit of any who were not familiar with its contents.

Order was then rapped for by Pres. Parker. Owing to the illness of Secretary Francis Grant the minutes of the previous meeting were not in form to present and were therefore dispensed with. George Kimball was appointed secretary pro tem.

Action of Committee

Mr. Kimball was called upon to read the communication which had been placed before the city council requesting detailed reports of the various expenditures which had been authorized by that body. Pres. Parker remarked that the result of the request, such as it is, has already been made public in the columns of the daily press.

A detailed statement of the work which had already been accomplished was then made by President Parker. He spoke warmly of the excellent spirit of enthusiasm which had been exhibited by all the members of the club who had been called upon to take a stand upon any of the subjects which the league has under consideration. Upon personal study of the question he had come to the conclusion that the city ordinances offer many loopholes to officials who have not been strict in their observance of the provisions. He proposed to the League that the office of street commissioner be made the subject of a general discussion.

In reply to a suggestion made by A. M. Valentine that the charter be amended to impose some penalty for failure to abide by its requirements, ex-Mayor F. S. Barnes stated that no alteration in the charter could be made without action by the state legislature.

The Street Commissioner. After some general remarks in which it was evident that no one knew enough of the office to talk definitely about it, the president of the League, who has recently been making some investigations, reported a loose method of conducting the street commissioner's duties. It is often impossible as things now stand to know the accuracy of the bills which he approves.

Discussion again lagged until M. G. Jeffris suggested that it would be inadvisable to talk of some of these questions in so public a meeting as that of the League. He advocated authorizing the executive committee to go ahead, with the backing of the entire club and get to the bottom of the entanglement in the city's affairs. He had come to the conclusion from what has already been unearthed that there have been criminal transactions in connection with the municipal government. Financial aid would be essential to the executive committee and he advised the raising of a subscription fund. He embodied his remarks in a motion which was unanimously passed.

Many Subscriptions Made

Richard Valentine started the subscription ball rolling by offering to be one of ten men to give twenty-five dollars. W. S. Jeffris, A. M. Valentine, W. B. Conrad, Hayes Bros., S. B. Lewis, Parker Pen Co., F. F. Lewis, Whitehead & Matheson and T. O. Howe brought the list up to the desired mark. After that all was easy sailing. An epidemic of giving broke out and when the reckoning came it was found that $579 had been pledged in the following amounts:

Sixteen persons pledged twenty-five dollars apiece; two pledged twenty each; five, fifteen; thirteen, ten; forty-two, five; and twenty-one persons promised one dollar apiece.

After some more general discussion and some more pledging of money the meeting adjourned. Whenever the spirit of giving began to ooze away, M. G. Jeffris was called on to "say some more," and the offerings began to roll in. Before the meeting a subscription paper had been circulated which had secured $142. This taken together with the total amount raised at the meeting brought the grand total up to $1052. The pledges may be paid at anyone of the four banks in the city or at Smith's pharmacy. The suggestion that the money be collected at I. F. Connor's saloon was rejected. At the five places further pledges will be taken. All checks should be made payable to Sec. Treas. Francis Grant.

By-Laws Adopted

The by-laws which were adopted at the meeting besides providing that there shall be no dues and that the officers shall receive no compensation enacted that no city officer or candidate for any city office can become or remain a member of the executive committee. The duties of the officers are those usually accorded to such positions. The annual meeting shall be held the second Monday in January.

The executive committee shall represent the League in all matters and may pursue any course of action which in their judgment shall promote the objects of the league. They shall authorize all disbursements of money.

STUDENTS TO TALK ON COAL QUESTION

Subject for the Joint Debate Between Appleton and Janesville High Schools is Chosen.

Government ownership of the anthracite coal fields will be the subject for debate at the annual contest between the debating teams of the Appleton and Janesville High schools. This debate will take place in this city during the month of March, the exact wording of the question being "Resolved, That the government should own and operate the anthracite coal fields within its boundaries, it being conceded that the coal fields can be constitutionally acquired by the United States."

The question was submitted by the Appleton school and was accepted by the Janesville school with the provision that the constitutionality of such proceeding should be conceded. It was considered that the legality of the question was rather too deep for High school students.

The Janesville school will argue on the affirmative side of the question. The speakers have not been selected yet but they will be members of the Rusik Lyceum and a series of debates will be held in the Lyceum for the purpose of determining upon the three speakers. Harry Doran will doubtless be the leader.

This will be the third joint debate in which the two schools have participated. Two years ago the first challenge was issued by the Appleton school and its debaters came to Janesville to meet defeat. Last year the debate was held at Appleton and the visitors were defeated, making one victory for each school. Much interest is being taken in the coming contest.

REV. THOMPSON WILL LECTURE

Prominent Social Democrat Speaker Will Address Audience at Forsters' Hall Thursday.

Upholders of the Social Democratic party in this city are making plans for a rousing public meeting on Thursday, January 22. The speaker who is to address the meeting which will be held in Forsters' hall on the Corn Exchange is the Rev. Carl D. Thompson of Denver. He will touch on general phases of socialism, and the doctrines of his party, paying especial heed to the topics of governmental and municipal ownership.

At the meeting of the Municipal League an invitation from the Janesville branch of the Social Democratic party to attend the lecture was read. With a view to avoid any seeming connection with any party, the communication was simply received with thanks, and filed.

Mr. Thompson is spoken of as a powerful speaker. That he is meeting with favor is attested to by the fact that he already has all of January and February and part of March filled with engagements to speak in the cities of Wisconsin.

PLAY BASKET BALL AT EIGHT O'CLOCK

High School Game Is Called at That Hour This Evening at Gymnasium.

Between the halves of the basket ball game at the high school building this evening, two teams of young ladies will take the floor. The principal contest will be between the Burlington high school five, which has already defeated the Racine school by a margin of about ten points, and the local high school. The match is slated to begin promptly at eight o'clock in the gymnasium. The home team are not talking very loudly about their prospects, preferring to wait until they have won their laurels before they begin crowing over them.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, January 16, 1863.—An epidemic has broken out in this city and has attacked all ages and sexes indiscriminately. The sedate business man who has accurately measured his paces for the past twenty years, the young miss just graduated from the nursery, the dashing belle in ample hoops, the "Young America" who is ever ready for any headlong or break neck adventure, the plethoric devourer of good things, the pipe stem dandy, and the "rough" who sees a mortal enemy in every stray dry goods box or brightly lettered sign, is off to the pond to test the quality of a new pair of skates, and to test his proficiency in locomotion over a field of glaring ice.

It will occupy over eleven columns of our daily, and as we have had for some time past a portion of our workers on the paper dedicated to job work, we shall be compelled to divide it, giving one-half tomorrow and the remainder Monday. ## COMMISSIONER EMERY TALKS

NEW DAIRY AND FOOD COMMISSIONER EXPLAINS SITUATION.

TALKS ABOUT THE OLEO LAW

Makes an Answer to Fink on the Disputed Question of Coloring Matter.

Internal Revenue Collector Fink of Milwaukee and J. Q. Emery, the recently appointed dairy and food commissioner of the state, have recently been indulging in a little controversy through the columns of the state press as to the sale of colored oleomargarine in Wisconsin. Mr. Fink insisted that there was no such sale, while Mr. Emery took the opposite view.

Mr. Emery has now come out with a statement which seems to explain the entire situation. He says that Mr. Fink has arrived at his opinion from a consideration of the national oleomargarine bill of 1902. Study of the state law, he says, deduces the opposite results.

National Law

The United States law provides that if the production of oleomargarine, the mixtures or compounds set out in the law of 1886, are used, and these compounds are all free from artificial coloration and no artificial coloration is produced by the addition of coloring matter as an independent and separate ingredient, a tax of one cent per pound only will be collected, although the finished product may look like butter of some shade or yellow."

That is to say, that according to the United States law and the rulings of the revenue commissioner thereon, oleomargarine whose yellow color appeals to the eye, may, constructively, under specified conditions, be uncolored.

Wisconsin Enactment

In the state law on the other hand the oleomargarine must be "in a separate and distinct form and in such manner as will advise the consumer of its real character, and be free from coloration or ingredient that cause it to look like butter."

It is said that on being apprised of these facts, Mr. Fink admitted that he was in the wrong, and that there has been a plain violation of the law in this state. Mr. Emery does not hold that there has been any willful disregard of the provisions of the enactment, but that the misunderstanding has arisen from misinterpretation of the laws.

JACKSON I. CASE HAD MANY FRIENDS

Janesville People Often Talk of Days When the Late Millionaire Played Polo Here.

With the probating of the will of the late Jackson I. Case of Racine, numberless incidents have been recalled by his friends about the city, of the various Janesville events in which he figured. Most of them hinge about polo contests. In the days when Janesville stood among the best on the rollers J. I. Case was one of the star players of the Racine team, and often played at the Taylor rink before crowds that required additional seats erected over the river to accommodate them all. In every one of the matches which took place, Case is spoken of as one of the truest sportsmen of them all, a man whose friendship was worth having.

PLAY BASKET BALL AT EIGHT O'CLOCK

FRED H. KOEBELIN IS ELECTED MAJOR

Has Been Made Commanding Officer of the First Battalion of Patriarch Militant of Wisconsin.

Fred H. Koebelin of this city, has been elected major of the first battalion of the Patriarchs Militant of Wisconsin, his term of office to continue for the next two years. Official notice of his election, which goes into effect at once, was received by Major Koebelin from the office of Lieut. Col. H. J. Suttle, department commander of the state, Wednesday.

The Patriarchs Militant which is the uniformed rank of the Odd Fellows, has two battalions in the state and the first battalion includes six Cantons, one of them being Canton Janesville No. 9. Major Koebelin's election makes him an officer on Lieut. Col. Suttle's staff and is one of the highest honors in the gift of the order.

Members of the Canton Janesville No. 9 P. M. feel, however, that the occasion is not one for rejoicing alone. While they appreciate deeply the honor which comes to them through this election they would personally prefer that the honor should have gone somewhere else. They candidly admit that this feeling is entirely selfish and it arises from the fact that the local Canton must be the loser to a great extent by this election.

Mr. Koebelin has served the local Canton as the captain of its drill team and it was due largely to his efficiency as a commanding officer that the Janesville team won first honors in the competition last autumn. His position as major of the battalion will bar Mr. Koebelin from commanding a team in future prize contests and this is the reason that his fellow chevaliers do not feel entirely happy over his election.

For the same reason Mr. Koebelin did not desire the position, preferring to remain in the place where he could be of the greatest service to his own Canton. He has not decided definitely whether he will accept the office or decline it.

WILL INVITE OTHER CITIES

Neighboring Councils Will Attend the Annual Dancing Party of the Knights of Columbus.

Arrangements were perfected last evening by the Knights of Columbus for their annual ball. It will be a lavish affair, to which invitations will be extended to the neighboring councils of Beloit, Rockford and Madison. The Edgerton members of the local lodge will of course be included. The date is set for Wednesday, January 21. Preparations are being made with a view to surpassing all previous dancing parties which the local council has given.

A MASS MEETING OF TRADES UNIONS

Federated Trades Council Has Appointed a Committee to Make All Plans for Gathering.

At some date within the next month or perhaps later, a grand mass meeting of all labor men of the city will be held. The Federated Trades Council has appointed a committee to have the matter in charge, arrange a program, choose speakers, and make all preliminary plans. Its scope will probably be much the same as the similar meetings which have been held here in the past notably the one last June, to arouse greater enthusiasm and interest among the union employees of the city. It has not yet been decided whether or not the general public or simply union members will be admitted to the gathering. The date of the meeting is to be deferred long enough to give all of the trades unions opportunity to hold preparatory meetings.

At a meeting of the Trades Council on Wednesday evening, two external delegates from the Beloit council were present as visitors. They were G. S. Krapf of the Woodworkers and R. H. McCrea of the clerks.

A LOCAL PLUMBER GETS THE OFFICE

Vice-Presidency of the State Master Plumbers' Association Goes to Fred E. Green.

Two closed sessions held by the master plumbers of the state at Milwaukee, were followed by an open meeting, the results of which were not withheld. Immediate result was the passage of a resolution empowering the committee of five to draft a bill looking to the repeal of the present Hen law, which was termed "class legislation." In the election of officers for the ensuing year a Janesville plumber was honored with the vice presidency. The complete list follows:

President—Frank J. Smith, Milwaukee.

Vice-President—Fred E. Green of Milwaukee.

Treasurer—George Kraft of Madison.

Secretary—Phil H. Murphy, Milwaukee.

Chapels and Sacristies

The Chapels and Sacristies in both churches will be devoted to the use of the Mission priests, where they may receive and advise privately such as discuss their spiritual counsel.

What is a Mission?

The answers to this question might be considered both simple and complex. Stated in its simple aspect it is an earnest and prolonged effort to deepen personal devotion and spirituality in Christian people and to awaken all people within its hearing to a sense of sin, their need of the Savior and a right relationship between God and man.

The Mission is For All

The Mission is not extended solely for the people of the two parishes. It is for the people of the town. During the continuance of the Mission the seating capacity of the two churches belongs to our townspersons as much as to our parishioners. No difference will be made. Everybody welcome.

A Call

The problems of life are fresh in the minds of all thinking people. There are problems of the day which force themselves upon the attention of men. The Mission solves the greatest problems of all—How shall I in the end gain victory over the world and all its problems? The Mission is the voice of God and contains a call—a call for you, dear reader. God calls men often with the "still small voice," but in the strong wind and thunders only occasionally. Can you afford to despise an opportunity that belongs to you while it lasts?

The Days Are Hastening On

Prophets long foretold. The forces of nature, the powers of the wind, the conscious needs, deep down in men's souls, all unite in confirming the promises made unto the fathers. Here comes a call which has nothing selfish in it, but only that love in which these devoted men would reveal after prayerful preparation, the unsearchable riches of Christ to their fellow men.

We therefore extend to our fellow citizens a most earnest and pressing invitation to come to the Mission.

TOBACCO GROWERS PUT OFF SESSION

January Meeting at Madison Has Been Postponed Until February 25.

The annual meeting of the Wisconsin Tobacco Growers and Dealers' association which was to have been held at Madison on January 21, has been postponed until February 25.

This change in the date was made to accommodate both the farmer and the dealer. Just at present a great many of the farmers are engaged in getting their crops ready for delivery and the dealers have all they can do to take care of the tobacco that is coming in. The committee in charge did not realize this until after the circulars calling attention to the meeting had been sent out. They have received a good many letters and protests from farmers about holding the meeting just at this time and suggesting a later date. They have given the matter a careful consideration and have decided that February 25, would be a better date as the bulk of the tobacco around the country would be ready for delivery if not delivered by that time, so that both grower and dealer could get away and attend the meeting.

A Good Meeting

The meeting will be a hummer, and of great importance to both grower and packer and no doubt some steps will be taken at the meeting to secure legislation this winter favorable to the tobacco interests. All members of the association are requested to remain for the evening session which will be under the auspices of the "Forty Thousand Club" of Madison.

Compete For Prizes

The farmers are requested to be present at the meeting and to compete for the several prizes which are offered by the association for samples of the 1902 crop.

BANQUET DATE SET, FOR "GET ONE" CLUB

January Thirtieth is the Limit Set to Secure New Men for the Association.

After several false alarms, and frequent committee meetings to determine what action should eventually be taken, the date for the consummation of the purpose of the "Get One" club has been definitely set. This club which was organized to secure recruits for the Y. M. C. A. has now nearly one hundred members many of whom have fulfilled their pledge to secure a new man for the association. Those who shall have been successful by that date and the new members who have been secured by that time will be the guests at a supper and reception to be held in the Y. M. C. A. building on Friday evening, January 30.

PETITION PASSAGE OF BARBERS' BILL

Tonsorial Shops in the City Are Asking for Signatures To Pass Bill.

In the barber shops of the city are displayed petitions to the state or a bill requiring the licensing of barbers. In some of the shops signers are being solicited, while in others the petition is treated with contempt, according to the personal attitude of the proprietors. In a few of the shops large lists of signers have already been secured. Similar petitions have been circulated among the barbers in all of the principal cities of the state, and the sponsors of the movement profess themselves as well satisfied with the results.

LIBERTY BELLES IN JANESEVILLE

Performance of This Much Advertised Company Not Up to Expectations.

Liberty Belles came, saw and left. The audience that greeted this production was a good one and except for a few specialties the audience did not enthuse over the play that was scheduled to appear with forty persons and no chorus and no plot.

That there were pleasing dramatic techniques is true but the performance as a whole was devoid of any particular interest and but few in the audience that sat through the entire act could remember any of the songs and but few of the specialties that passed before them.

For a variety show it would have been a good one but for a comic opera it fell far below the expectations of the persons who had paid a dollar and a half for seats. The opening scene was the best and Rita Knight as the Pink Pajama girl clearly carried off the honors of the evening both by her acting, pleasing manner and clever dancing. Perhaps Harry Stuart and Percy Leach divided honors with her but with these exceptions and Miss Mabel Adams' violin solo in the first act the rest of the company were mediocre and such as one would expect to find in a music hall or in a vaudeville show. On the whole the show was a disappointment and not up to the standard advertised by the press reports.

"FOXY QUILLER" HERE TUESDAY

Sequel to the Highwayman, at the Myers' Grand Opera House

Next Week.

The comic opera success, "Foxy Quiller" with Mr. Richard Golden as the star, will be the offering at the Myers Grand opera house and its presentation here by the largest operatic organization that has ever toured the country will be a musical event of more than ordinary interest. The original production of this highly praised work will be seen here and a genuine treat is in store for lovers of this sort of entertainment. The opera has all the brightness and catchiness in its tunes and libretto to furnish excellent entertainment to a laughter loving public. It appeals to the ear as Dr. Koven knows best how to appeal, and to the humor with Harry B. Smith's special faculty for creating cerebral fun. And the combination is that from which only good things can be expected, since Dr. Koven and Smith is as famous a trade mark on light opera in this land and generation as Gilbert and Sullivan brand of a departed day. The management has developed all the spectacular possibilities of "Foxy Quiller" to their utmost, beautiful women, superb stage settings, magnificent costumes and the military drills of surpassing grace and color effects. A splendid collection of male and female voices and a cast that is not easily rivaled. It includes Miss Charlotte Gilman, Adolph Zink and many other notable artists.

The organization is under the management of Mr. Ben Stern, which in itself is a guarantee of excellence.

WILL PRINT ALL COUNCIL DOINGS

The Proceedings of the City Fathers Will Hereafter Be Made Public.

The city council committee appointed to investigate the cost and feasibility of printing the proceedings of the council in full met yesterday afternoon. They decided that beginning with the next meeting the proceedings should be published in both daily papers. This move on the part of the city council committee is following the request made by the Municipal League that all proceedings including all bills allowed, be published, so that the people could see where the money went to. From now on for a time at least there will be a change in the management of city affairs and the aldermen will be held more strictly accountable for their acts.

POSTOFFICE NOT BUILT PROPERLY

The Contractors Will Be Compelled to Rebuild It, Owing to Defective Work.

From a dispatch sent out from Washington it would seem that the supervising architect of the treasury department is not satisfied with the work done by Yeager & Son on the post office building. The principal trouble is stated to be with the brick work which was not laid in accordance with the specifications which call for the brick being laid in English cross bond. This has not been done and a letter has been sent to the contractors ordering them to tear down the brick work and lay it up according to specifications.

Loss to Yeager

The changes demanded by the department will delay the completion of the building and means a loss to the contractors. The architect of the treasury department is determined that the work shall be done according to the specifications and has notified the contractors that unless they follow the specifications their contract will be nullified.

THIEF IS CAUGHT

Interurban Could Not Beat The Telephone and Culprit Is Arrested

A young man giving his name as Irvin Adolph, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Officers Brown and Fanning, just as he alighted from the interurban car, for stealing $30 from a party in Rockton. The police received word from Rockton regarding the robbery and were watching for a man answering the description given them. They spotted Adolph two minutes he stepped off the car and arrested him.

When he was searched at the lock-up a $20 gold certificate was found in his possession and answered the description of one of the missing bills. He was kept in the lock-up until the Illinois authorities came after him.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Possibly rain, warmer tonight and cooler Saturday.

THE MUNICIPAL LEAGUE

The Municipal League is no longer a myth. The meeting last night, not only packed the hall to its capacity, but the audience was composed of earnest, determined tax payers, ready to lend both moral and financial support to the movement.

It was the most harmonious gathering ever held in the city. The prevailing sentiment, without a dissenting voice, was for a better and more wholesome city government, and it is safe to say that results will be accomplished.

It was a non-partisan gathering but with a single purpose, without regard to sect or creed, and it was the best omen for good that has come to the city in many a year.

Money flowed into the treasury like water, and the prevailing sentiment was, "When you need more, come again." There will be no lack of funds, nor moral and legal support to unearth irregularities and correct abuses that have long existed.

The League is no longer a by-word and any man who opposes by word or action the progressive movement, places himself in the limited class of men who are willing to say: "We are satisfied with the present conditions and do not care to see them disturbed." The League has come to stay and it will be a power for good. It is not a political organization, but it possesses the power to say, the best men only shall be entrusted with positions of public trust.

Every tax payer in the city, he be engaged in the saloon business or any other, who cares for good local government, will become identified with the movement. It is not an crusade against intemperance, or any other specified class of immorality. It is simply an uprising of the tax payers in behalf of their own interests.

Let the good work go on until the city is redeemed, and its affairs placed in the hands of men who regard a public trust as sacred as a private obligation.

THE UNIVERSITY

It is not improbable that during the session of the legislature an appropriation for the state university will be asked for and given by the legislature. Just how much of an investigation will be made of the actual needs of the institution is not certain but if it follows out past examples the 1903 legislature will be cajoled into making a good round appropriation for the benefit of the state school.

If these same legislators who will vote so glibly for the money to help build up the educational end of the institution would only go behind the scenes and investigate the inside workings of the school they might find interesting facts. While without a doubt the university is among the greatest of any state university still there are many things, many practices, that might be well to be remedied before the institution gets to be much older. Pennsylvania, Harvard, Yale and all the big institutions have been forced to have a big wash day in the past and there is no time like the present for Wisconsin to have one. While it is an educational institution, the university is devoting much time and more money to its paid coaches and its trainers and its rubbers and other so called necessities of the modern athletic world than it does to many of its professors and instructors. While the old saying "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is true still there is the thing of making too much play for Jack and too little work. Athletics are all right when kept within bounds. Football, baseball, foot and crew work are all fine developers for the physical side of the student but when they are made a part of a professional course of study, when a special paid trainer, a man who has no interests but his pay, and a paid manager who is paid to secure as much money as possible and arrange for just as many contests as is possible and above all sees that his team wins, then is the time to call a halt in the proceedings. One way to do this is for the legislature to ask for an investigation of the affairs and see if the money that is to be appropriated for educational uses is of as much consequence as a fund for athletics. If athletics come out the favorite then place a bulk sum in the hands of the professors who are paid to teach and also as a side issue to control the policies of the athletics for the use of athletics and the paid manager and let the educational end go.

Then to it might be a safe investment for the legislature to ask why no president has as yet been chosen for the institution and why the Board of Regents still are dilatory regarding the election of a head for the institution that is to ask for funds. Of the three men now at the university, who are named as candidates two stand out prominently as amply qualified for the position. Professor Van Hise or Professor Turner. Both are young men, both are students. Both have the admiration and respect of the under graduates and of the graduates. Both are authority in their line of work of study throughout the United States and both have the qualifications for the presidency of an institution such as the university now is. The third man is but the choice of a few and among the alumnus he has many bitter enemies who feel that the best interests of the state and of the university will not be benefited by his being placed in office. Let the members look to these two situations before they so readily grant the requests for more money and tie another burden upon the taxpayers of the state.

LAKE NAVIGATION

The close of November on the great lakes usually marks the end of the season of through navigation. This year, for the first time, the Treasury Bureau of Statistics has covered an entire season's tonnage movement, giving arrivals and clearances at ports on these interior waters. For November, 214 ports report arrivals and clearances, and the registered tonnage movement in net tons is available for the first 11 months of the year. December's tonnage adds slightly to these figures, but will not materially change the grand total. For the first 11 months of the past year, 77,408 vessels were reported as arrivals, with a net registered tonnage of 71,443,517 net tons, and 77,899 clearances of 72,215,093 net tons. These figures apply exclusively to coastwise trade; that is, to trade between domestic ports only, and do not include tonnage employed in the lake trade between Canada and the United States.

There are twenty individual ports on the great lakes having each a registered tonnage of arrivals ranging from 1 million to over 5 million tons. One Lake Superior 4 different ports had a combined tonnage of 14,353,972 net tons, of which Duluth is credited with 4,971,434 tons; Superior-West Superior, 4,037,139 tons; Two Harbors, 3,123,853 tons, and Ashland, 2,171,546 tons. Lake Michigan has seven ports which fall within this class, aggregating 18,773,132 tons of arrivals. Of these Milwaukee stands at the head with 4,622,593 tons. Next in order comes Chicago, with 4,370,638 tons, followed by Escanaba with 3,914,256 tons, whose freight cargoes consisted very largely of ore shipments to the manufacturing districts of the lower lakes. South Chicago has a tonnage of 2,293,479 tons, and if included in that of Chicago, the combined tonnage would exceed the registered tonnage of any other lake port by more than 1 1/2 million tons. Next in order, on Lake Michigan, come Ludington, with 1,811,875 tons; Manitowoc, 1,751,609 tons, and Frankfort, with 1,008,685 tons.

JOHN C. SPOONER

Now that it is assured that John C. Spooner will be elected to succeed himself as United States senator the staunch republicans of the state can breathe a sigh of relief. For two years his friends have fought for him and but for their gallant fight he would not have received the one hundred and four votes that he did. Some other man, some man picked for the purpose, perhaps Isaac Stephenson, would have had the honor and the state of Wisconsin would have lost the services of one of the best statesmen of the present day and age. Spooner the friend of presidents, the advisors of secretaries would have been relegated to the shelf to make way for some favorite who wanted the place. But the voters of the state thought otherwise and despite the plank in the state platform that called for his humiliating himself or being defeated they have sent to Madison men who were pledged to vote for him for senator and the work begun two years ago has been accomplished. On January twenty-eighth John C. Spooner will be elected formally as senator to succeed himself for six years more.

STARTS AT LAST

At last definite steps have been taken to straighten out the tangle of city politics. George S. Parker, a taxpayer, and in virtue of the fact that he is the president of the Municipal League has begun a suit against Alderman James B. McLean as superintendent of the city stone crusher one and the same man on the statutory grounds as that he cannot hold the two positions under the existing law which governs the city. The suit seeks to recover the money paid to McLean as superintendent of the stone crusher and makes the city party to the suit so that the money can be turned back into the treasury. This is the first step. More will follow and interesting features may be looked for before this movement to sweep the city of Janesville clean of all suspicion of fraud or misappropriation of city funds by evasion of the law is over.

A man who proclaimed himself greater than Dowie has been tried as to his sanity and found "not guilty." Perhaps the jury did not wish to reflect on John Alexander's own claims.

Sixteen "goods" at Northwestern have decided to segregate, and for the same reason that moved President Harper to make the innovation general down on the Midway. The girls declare that the boys interfere with their studies. The worm has turned.

Washington rushed the question of the coal bill through the senate and house with a dispatch that was more than creditable and now the president has signed it and it is a law. Hurrah for free coal.

Now that the winter has come and all the ground is frozen up comes the word that northern Wisconsin has countless peat beds that would supply the world with fuel.

An Indian judge who accepted pay from his appointees to help defray his campaign expenses has been "persuaded" to resign by the county bar. Our judges must be like Caesar's wife, above suspicion.

Now that the latest trust is formed of the monkey, parrot, bird and animal dealers, we may naturally see a regular monkey and parrot sort of a time all around.

Much sickness and distress prevails in the cities owing to the lack of fuel. Rich and poor alike are crowding the authorities in hopes of securing needed supplies.

Milwaukee started on an investigating tour all of its own without the aid of a grand jury and found ten thousand tons of coal hidden away and the poor suffering.

And is the most than can be squeezed out of the present congress in the way of tariff reform a rebate on coal? Still the democrats continue to grope for an "issue" for 1904.

The Lenroot referendum measure of last session will again be brought in. This provides all proposed franchises must be submitted to the popular vote.

General Taft remains in the Philippines and General Wood waits for service there. Americans begin to "hear the East calling."

Professor Deltsch of Berlin says that Moses was a plagiarist. Would that we had more of this quality of plagiarism nowadays.

It looks like serious trouble in the Balkans with the powers aiding in promoting a revolution in Macedonia. A slap at Turkey.

Santa Claus David Rose promises thirty thousand tons of coal by the first of February. Milwaukee's mayor may not be all bluff after all.

Milwaukee is to have an immense coke and oven plant. Hon. Mark Hanna is the leading spirit in the move.

It will take a good head to straighten out the complications the new German tariff will create with this country.

Is no longer a crime in Toledo to steal coal. But how about the offense that makes such stealing necessary?

The new English law against drunkenness has created a great consternation among the steady imbibers.

Venezuelan matters are quiet with prospects of a blockade will be raised pending arbitration.

COOKING SCHOOL SERVES LUNCHES

FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS AND TEACHERS.

NOMINAL PRICE IS CHARGED

Three Courses Are Served for Fifteen Cents—Young Girls Are in Charge.

For the past week, luncheons have been served at the High school building by the cooking classes under the direction of their instructor, Miss Thayer. This is according to the custom which is followed every winter during the coldest weather. Many of the High school teachers and students find it impossible to go to their homes for the midday lunch and during the cold weather they appreciate the opportunity of securing a hot luncheon at a nominal price.

Price Covers Cost

The luncheons which are served at the High school are given to the patrons at a price which is designed simply to cover the actual cost. Three courses are served for fifteen cents or the patrons are privileged to buy any one of the courses for five cents. In former years the entire luncheon has been served for ten cents but the higher cost of provisions this winter has necessitated an advance in the price charged.

Three Courses Served

The same general plan of menu is followed each day. The first course is always some nutritious soup and wafers. Next hot chocolate and sandwiches are served, no limit being placed on the number of sandwiches eaten. The kind of sandwiches is changed every day, meat, nuts or some other filling always being used. The dessert course follows and is generally some healthy pudding.

One of the objects regarded in planning the menu is to select articles which will be appetizing and will also furnish the greatest possible amount of nourishment. That the luncheons are appreciated is evidenced by the enthusiasm with which they were welcomed and the manner in which they are being patronized.

Students Do the Work

The luncheons are not alone for the convenience of the patrons. They are of practical benefit to the members of the cooking classes, giving them experience and a keener interest in their work. The young girls who are taking the course in domestic science have charge of preparing and serving the luncheons, a certain number being detailed for each day. Four girls wait on the tables and the balance are on duty in the kitchen. Daintiness of service and a general efficiency is insisted upon.

Many Patrons

The long tables at which the luncheons are served are laid in the sewing room which adjoins the kitchen on the third floor of the building. There are about twenty-five regular patrons besides those who take advantage of the lunches occasionally. Severe weather would increase the patronage considerably.

FLOOR IS WEAK

Municipal Court Room Can Not Stand Large Strain

Considerable uneasiness was felt last night by many of those present at the Municipal League meeting about the floor in the assembly room of the new city hall standing the strain put upon it. The floor cracked loudly several times and showed it was carrying all that it could stand. Some of those present left the meeting rather than take any chances on going through. There are several places in the building that are in bad shape and the floor of the municipal court room will have to be propped up soon or it will be down into the cell room of the city lock-up.

Club to Meet: The Philomathian club will hold their regular meeting with Mrs. F. H. Koehlin, 277 Prospect avenue, Saturday afternoon, Jan. 17, at three o'clock.

Wanted—Local representatives, Lady or gentleman. Steady position to the right party. Salary from $1.50 to $2.00 per day. Enquire at the American House, Jan. 17th from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m. Room 4. F. M. TUSKEN.

ST. PAUL STATION ABOUT COMPLETED

OFFICIALS WILL MOVE IN NEXT SUNDAY MORNING.

IMMENSE PLATFORM IS READY

Superintendent Eldredge Gives Final Instructions, and Locates Bus and Hack Stands.

Superintendent P. C. Eldredge of the St. Paul road was in the city today inspecting the new station and getting it cleaned up so that it can be occupied Sunday. There are a good many things of a permanent nature about the platforms that cannot be completed until spring and temporary blanketing has been put in for the winter.

Cleaning Debris Away

The piles of sand and refuse have been cleaned away so that the platforms are in good condition to handle their passenger trade. The only draw back to opening the station on Sunday is that the furniture for the waiting rooms is not yet completed and the old suits will have to be taken from the present station and used for a few days.

Bus Stand Question

The hack and bus stand question was settled by Mr. Eldredge. He looked the ground over with Agent Johnson and showed him the stands to assign to each of the busses and the different hack lines. The platform is so arranged that all have an equal chance for business and have a hack and bus stand next to the platform.

THOMAS HEMMENS BADLY INJURED

Was Struck by North-Western Passenger Train While Walking on Tracks Near Monterey.

Thomas Hemmens, seventy-two years of age and residing at 252 Lincoln street was struck by a North-Western passenger train near Monterey bridge, about one o'clock today and was badly injured.

Was Demented

Mr. Hemmens has been out of his mind for some time and today left home and wandered away down towards Monterey, where he walked onto the railroad track in front of the North-Western passenger train that leaves here about 12:45 for Chelmo. The engineer did not have time to stop after Mr. Hemmens stepped onto the track, although he succeeded in checking the speed of the train considerably before the engine struck him.

Was Unconscious

The injured man was picked up and placed in the baggage car and the train backed up to the passenger station, where a call was sent for the patrol wagon and the injured man was conveyed to the hospital.

Hip Factured

It was found that Mr. Hemmens' left hip was fractured and that he had received numerous cuts and bruises about the head and body besides internal injuries. Mr. Hemmens, being well along in years and quite feeble the injuries may result seriously for him.

L.T.-GOV. TILLMAN
SHOOTS EDITOR

CLIMAX OF AN ELECTION FEUD

Victim Had Denounced the Senator's Nephew as a "Debauchee and Blackguard," a "Criminal Candidate" and a "Proven Liar."

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 16.—James H. Tillman, Lieutenant governor of South Carolina and nephew of United States Senator Benjamin Tillman, shot down Narcisse G. Gonzalez, editor of The State, who is in a critical condition at Columbia hospital, where the surgeons say he will die.

Tillman shot Gonzalez within a few moments after leaving the senate, over which he had presided, and the deed was committed within a few yards of the capitol, on the main street of the city, and in sight of hundreds of passersby.

Fires at Short Range.

Tillman was accompanied by two state senators. They met Gonzalez and, without a word, Tillman stepped toward the editor, drew a revolver, and fired at short range. The wounded man staggered back, leaned against a building, and the Lieutenant governor, stepping forward, raised the revolver again. Gonzalez cried: "Shoot again, you coward!" His assailant lowered the revolver and walked away.

Gonzalez was unarmed.

Threats of Revenge.

News of the shooting spread over the city in a few minutes, and before the police had succeeded in hurrying Tillman to police headquarters and then to the jail, under a strong guard, the streets were jammed with excited people, many uttering threats against Tillman. Friends of Gonzalez threatened mob violence and declared they would avenge him should he die.

Gonzalez has three brothers, all noted for courage, and should he die their friends say they will have revenge.

How Shooting Occurred.

The shooting took place at 2 o'clock. Gonzalez was walking home alone from his office to lunch. Tillman left the statehouse just after the senate adjourned. He came out of the statehouse accompanied by Senator Talbot of Beaufort and Senator Brown of Darlington and was joined by Congressman-elect Wyatt Aiken and former Representative Dominic. The party met Gonzalez at the turn of Main and Gervais streets. There was no encounter. Tillman, so far as the evidence discloses, drew his revolver and fired. Most of those who saw the affair say nothing was said until after the shooting.

Tillman Alleges Threats.

At the Columbia hotel Tillman said to a group of his friends: "Gonzalez has sent me word that when we meet again we shall settle our difficulties with pistols."

One of Tillman's escorts says he thinks Tillman said: "I received your message," and then fired. The other companions of Tillman say they did not hear anything, but they would have heard any words if they were spoken.

Statement by Gonzalez.

Gonzalez gave an explicit statement of the affair before being put under anesthesia. He was emphatic in saying that he had not sent any message to Tillman at any time, and that Tillman said nothing until after he fired, and after he had shot he said something about taking him (Gonzalez) at his word.

Gonzalez said he tried to avoid Tillman when he saw him.

Gonzalez and Tillman passed each other frequently since the opening of the legislature, but there was no encounter, no words passed, and no recognition of any kind.

Refuses to Talk.

Tillman was asked for a statement, but said he had been advised by his counsel to say nothing, and he followed their advice.

The bullet entered Gonzalez's right side between the eighth and ninth ribs, and passed through the body. The bullet was picked up on the pavement.

Surgeons performed an operation upon Gonzalez. The operation was regarded as successful, but, in the judgment of the physicians, the wounded man has only one chance in five to live.

Cause of Tragedy.

The cause of the shooting was that during the recent primary election Gonzalez bitterly opposed Tillman in his race for governor. During the campaign Gonzalez in his paper called Tillman a "debauchee and blackguard" and denounced him as a "criminal candidate" and a "proven liar."

No Tariff Concessions to Be Given Any Sugar Country but Cuba.

Another amendment provides for transferring a 20 per cent concession to that receiving a 40 per cent from Cuba.

The treaty is now satisfactory to all the Republicans and to some of the Democrats, so that it will be practically impossible to defeat it for want of a two-thirds vote.

Senator Culom, in reporting the treaty, said he would call it up for consideration in executive session Monday.

The News From County Towns.

MILTON, Jan. 16.—The lecture of Prof. P. H. Lewis, of the Lewis institute, Chicago, did not receive the patronage that it would have been accorded had it been better advertised. Those who were fortunate enough to be present had the pleasure of hearing an eloquent and cultured speaker and a literary production that was filled with meaty thought. Despite the fact that the lecture was not well advertised the church chapel was crowded. Dr. Lewis delivers another lecture in March.

The fancy chicken raisers of Milton were favored this week by having Chas. McClure, of New London, Ohio, one of the best poultry judges in the United States, here to score and mate their stock. He looked over the stock of Miles Rice, Rev. T. W. North, G. E. Osborn, and R. W. Brown, all of which showed up good. Out of 150 scored for Miles 75 had an average of 92 points. It was through the efforts of County Treasurer Rice that Mr. McClure was secured for this work, he being one of the judges at the great Chicago show next week, also the Stoughton show.

Miss Lucy Walker left for Evans-ton, Ill., Thursday.

Miss Atwood gives instruction in the ladies class in physical culture at the college this term.

Miss Mina Cutter gave readings at the farmers' convention at Milton Junction, last Thursday. She was assisted by the Beloit College quartette.

Mrs. C. H. Robinson entertained a large company of relatives to a dinner on Friday last. Those present were the families of C. Kemp, Emerald Grove; C. Hackwell, Fairfield; E. Kemp, Rock Prairie; W. Lamb, Johnstown, and R. Kemp, Emerald Grove.

Any one having stock to butcher will do well to call on Mr. Morris, at the creamery, who is a first class hand at the business; and the farmers are giving him quite a little practice, for with the prevailing high prices of beef and pork, many think it well to lay down their own supply. The farmer has about the best chance of any one in getting ahead of the trusts.

We are glad to note an increased interest in the class of Bible study, and trust many more will plan to take up this work. Lesson for Saturday afternoon, Acts 17: 1-15.

The Ladies' Industrial society met with Mrs. Sidney Welch, Wednesday afternoon.

A large company were in attendance at the Royal Neighbors' social, Thursday evening, and a good time is reported.

FULTON

Fulton, Jan. 15.—Owing to the failure of Dr. Hopkins to fulfill his engagement as the third number of our lecture course, the following changes have become necessary. As noted in last week's paper the date of Mrs. Day's entertainment is fixed for Friday evening, January 23.

On February 3rd the fourth number of the course will be given. It will consist of a concert by the Mozart Symphony club one of the highest priced concert troupes on the road. The committee is very fortunate in being able to secure this club, and it could be done only by a great concession being made to the people here by the bureau. In consideration of the fact that Dr. Hopkins has disappointed us two years in succession they have decided it no more than double Dr. Hopkins' price for effort to allay his disappointment. They have accordingly consented to put in the Mozart Symphony club, which costs them considerably more than double Dr. Hopkins' price for the same price of his lecture. The high grade of this concert company and consequently their high prices, make it possible for only the lecture courses in the large cities to secure them, and although we were disappointed at not being able to listen to so fine a speaker as Dr. Hopkins, we believe our lecture course has been greatly strengthened by the change. Mrs. Day will be assisted in her entertainment by Chas. W. Raymond whose beautiful tenor voice the people of this community are always delighted to hear.

We are sure that the announcement that Mrs. Day assisted by Mr. Raymond, will appear here so soon, will be pleasing to the people. Remember the date, January 23rd. Single tickets 35 and 25 cents.

PRESS COMMENT

Marinette Eagle: Just why the True marriage law should be kept on the statute books is a mystery.

Fond du Lac Reporter: A Menasha coal dealer advertises coal for sale in any quantity. The people of that town are especially fortunate.

Evening Wisconsin: It should be exceedingly impolite, just now, for a coal dealer to ask a consumer "Is this cold enough for you."

Chippewa Herald: Reports from the lumbering district indicate that the logging conditions are perfect, and this ought to be a banner year for the contractors.

Oshkosh Times: Districts in Milwaukee are in a state of destitution because of the shortage of coal, but Milwaukee is not the only cinder on the dump.

Beloit Free Press: When the Venezuelan business is all settled, President Roosevelt and Secretary Hay can say, "we did it," and not be justly accused of egotism.
